Incidence of subsidies in Government expenditure

4707. SHRI VIJAY J .DADRA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state :

whether it is a fact that the incidence of subsidies in Government expenditure has gone up upto 9.5 per cent in 2002-03 from 7.4 per cent in 1994-95 to 1996-97 and this has contributed to lower capital expenditure and consequent lower investment rate in the economy; and if so, what are the short-term and long-term strategies being thought of to gradually reduce the incidence of subsidies and what is the perspective planning to bring it to zero level in foreseeable future?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI ANANDRAO VITHOBA ADSUL): (a) Central Government expenditure on subsidies as a proportion of total expenditure was 7.4 per cent in 1994-95,7.1 per cent in 1995-% and 11 per cent in 2002-03 (Revised Estimate). Increasing expenditure on subsidies, interest payments, wages and salaries and pension has resulted in lower capital expenditure.

(b) Government is conscious of the need for better targeting subsidies and eliminating those which have not served any social or economic purpose Steps are being taken to eliminate subsidies on domestic LPG and PDS kerosene in a phased manner over the next few years. Social and economic considerations may not warrant complete elimination of subisdies particularly those intended for the benefit of the poor and the destitute.
